This lushly landscaped open-air shopping destination offers 100 top brands to choose from as well as a spirited see-and-be-seen atmosphere.

Opened in 1965 by retail visionary Stanley Whitman, Bal Harbour Shops leads the charge as the first all-luxury fashion center featuring high-end retailers in a tropical, open-air setting. Celebrating a milestone 50th anniversary this November 2015 with a series of events and experiences, Bal Harbour Shops continues to be the most exclusive and unique shopping destination in the world—home to top designer boutiques and specialty retailers.

With three generations of the Whitman family remaining steadfast in their shared vision for this fashion mecca, Bal Harbour Shops continues to flourish and expand, topping the list as the world's most productive shopping center. Shoppers can also view the fourth installment of the Fashion Project series, entitled "The Anniversary." Honoring and celebrating the last five decades of fashion, the fourth part focuses on nature as a muse—in homage to the DNA of Bal Harbour Shops. Curated by renowned exhibition maker Judith Clark, "The Anniversary" is equal parts sartorial curation and art installation and will be on view through January 20, 2016.
